

SOCIAL EVENTS

FREUND-GREUENWALD.

Announcement of a wedding which will come as a surprise to friends—as the date had been kept a carefully guarded secret—is that of Miss Anna Greuenwald of Davenport, and Louis Freund, a member of the well known farming family of the same name, of near Eldridge.
Their marriage took place Saturday morning at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of the Church of St. Paul the Apostle, of Davenport, Rev. Father Denomme officiating. The attending witnesses were Miss Freund and Henry Freund, brother and brother of the groom, of Eldridge, and Mrs. H. C. Kelly, the mother of the bride, of Davenport.

Both the bride and her attendant were in blue tailored suits, that of the bride trimmed with marabou fur at the neck and wrist, while her hat was of black velvet trimmed with the marabou feathers.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Greuenwald, 1313 West Fourth street, where the bride has been making her home recently, and later the bridal cortege left in Mr. Freund's car for Eldridge.
They were served to luncheon there at the home of the groom's parents and then proceeded on their way, motoring to Chicago to spend the honeymoon at the Wisconsin Dells, and in the lake region of northern Wisconsin.

Mr. Freund is building a handsome new home on his farm near Eldridge, and it is expected that will be ready for occupancy by the time he and his bride return in about two weeks.

The bride has been connected with the main office of the Rock Island arsenal.

MICHIGAN ALUMNI BANQUET.

Fifteen members of the alumni of Michigan university sat down to an elaborate banquet served Saturday night at the Davenport Commercial club as one of the 200 banquets being held simultaneously throughout the country by Michigan alumni. Ira R.
Tabor acted as the toastmaster and talks were given by Andrew Olson of Moline, J. H. Hauberg of Rock Island, E. F. Nutting of Moline, J. W.
Maucker of Rock Island and Mr. Betty of Davenport, who spoke of the service for the university by the members of the alumni. The meeting was held in the interest of the new Michigan union home, which is to be built as a social home for all students who attend the university and the men gathered Saturday night in Davenport contributed $1,125 towards the project. Moving pictures and interesting slides of university scenes were given and later the guests gathered about the piano and old college songs were given with spirit.

The alumni will wish other members not present Saturday night and interest them in the building of the new home and see for their aid. The committee in charge of the arrangements Saturday night was composed of John H. Hauberg, Ira R. Tabor and C. S.
Pryor of Davenport.

ORGANIZE WORLD-WIDE GUILD.

CELEBRATES 60TH BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. E. Geoch, 1207 Second street, Rock Island, entertained Saturday afternoon and evening in honor of her 60th birthday. The house was decorated with garden flowers. The evening was spent in playing 500, prizes being awarded to Mrs. McDonald, Mrs.
Parker, Mrs. Fennell, Mr. Reitz, Mr.
Borelli, and Mrs. Fel. In a guessing contest, prizes were awarded to Mrs.
Reitz, Mrs. Fel, Mrs. Fennell, and Mr. Kramnick. The hostess served supper to 40 friends. At the supper came a little granddaughter, Eunice, presented the grandmother with a piece of money from the friend. She received many other pretty gifts.
